

SAVASTANO'S

AUTHENTIC CHICAGO STYLE

THIN CRUST PIZZA

Our sauces are always homemade, and instead of sitting on top, most toppings are blanketed generously with cheese and actually baked into the pizza. These pies are cut into squares, not triangles. Chicago-style thin crust—a different and delicious way of making pizzas—is one of our claims to fame.

**A note from our chef: Due to the pizza's hearty nature, you'll want to allow 30 minutes for your pie to bake to perfection.*

Crust Options: Original Thin, Double Dough (stacking 2 thins together), No Crust (no edge), Pizza Bowl (no dough, keto friendly)
Make it Jenny's way—add oregano.

AUTHENTIC CHICAGO DEEP DISH PIZZA

Savastano's continues a tradition begun in 1943, with a pie that's 2" high and full of flavor. Our 14"-wide pie weighs in at 8 delicious pounds. We fill our crust with homemade pizza sauce, always-fresh toppings and several layers of specially blended cheeses. Try it. You'll see why it's our signature dish.

**Please note: Any topping available can be added to our deep dish pies, however, due to the cooking process, we are unable to do half-and-half toppings. Also, due to the pizza's hearty nature, you'll want to allow 45 mins. for your pie to bake to perfection.*

Our signature deep dish pizzas are layered with cheese and ingredients, then topped with homemade pizza sauce.

THE SAVASTANO'S STORY A 'HOME' MADE DREAM

For more than three decades, our dad, Frank Savastano, kept a special dream on slow simmer. He used to tell our mom: "If the time is ever right, we should open our own pizzeria."

The dream began in Dad's hometown of Chicago in 1971. Dad had decided that, in addition to his full-time IT job, he'd spend a few months helping his cousins open their new south-east side pizza place. There, he discovered two great loves—Mom and the restaurant business.

After Dad's tech job moved us to Bixby in 1993, he and Mom promptly introduced us around the neighborhood—How else?—by bringing Dad's own oven-fresh pizzas door-to-door. With six kids in the family, we always had a special event to celebrate. And no gathering was ever complete without Dad's pizza pies.

Dad retired in 2002, and, at the urging of family and friends, dedicated himself to his restaurant dream. He spent the next several months tinkering with seasonings and sauces, specialty meats and doughs—carefully upsizing the delicious Italian recipes his mother and aunt had so lovingly served in their homes a generation earlier.

Since the opening of Savastano's in 2003, our family has sought to recreate not only the wonderful tastes, but also the warm, relaxing energy of Dad's beloved native city. Blending comfortable surroundings with friends, loved ones and great food has always brought our family joy. Savastano's reflects our dream of being able to share that with customers.

We outgrew our original Bixby location and, in 2009, moved to our current space—where our tradition of delivering Authentic Chicago Style continues and our philosophy plays out more than ever:

"When you're here, you're family!"

CHICAGO DOGS

THE CHICAGO WAY

You haven't truly had a hot dog until you try a Chicago-style "red-hot," named not because they're spicy, but rather because this multitopping taste sensation is built over a piping hot Vienna Beef frankfurter. Sold for generations now by numerous, popular Chicago stands and street vendors, red-hots trace their roots to the city's 1893 World's Fair.

CHICAGO 'RED-HOTS' & FRIES

Your tour deep into Chicago's culinary culture begins with Vienna "red-hots." Served piping hot (hence the name) in a steamed poppy seed bun, we top these premium beef hot dogs with yellow mustard, bright green Chicago-style relish, chopped onions, tomatoes, a pickle spear, sport peppers, and a dash of celery salt.

|   |      |
